2 - Star Spangled Banner

Oh say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?

And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

Oh say, does that Star Spangled Banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

7 - Sayonara with a Smile (Japan) from Music Express Magazine March/April 2012

Chorus: Ohayo” means “Good morning.”
“Oyasumi,” “Good night.”
“Genki des’ka” means “How are you?” Answer,
“Genki,” and it means that you’re all right.

And if someone says to you “Sayonara,” that means they must leave for a while.
But remember, as you part, they’re forever in your heart
And you’ll sing “Sayonara” with a smile.

You have friends in many different places.
WEDDINGTON to Tokyo seems closer ev’ry day.
Just think about their warm and caring faces, and they will be with you all along your way.           Chorus

(Last Time) And you’ll sing “Sayonara” with a smile.
